

RFFR Boot Camp

The straight-forward way to understand how "Right Fit For Risk" your business is.

Right Fit for Risk was developed as a means of understanding the security risk of an organisation.

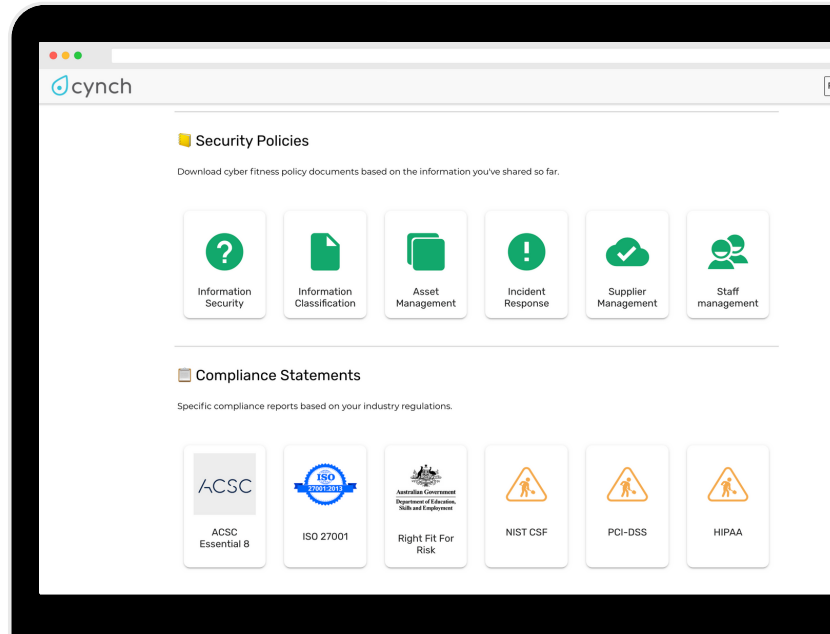

While the RFFR approach simplifies broader assurance and accreditation processes, smaller businesses can find the approach challenging to navigate.

Cynch have developed a tailored program to help small businesses prepare and respond to the RFFR in the best possible way.

REGISTER TODAY!

cynch.com.au/rffr

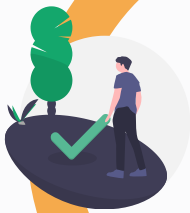

Build understanding of ISO27001 and ACSC Essential 8 implications for smaller businesses

Review cyber risks in technologies your business relies on

Complete simple, plain-language steps on your own to address priority security gaps

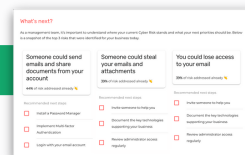

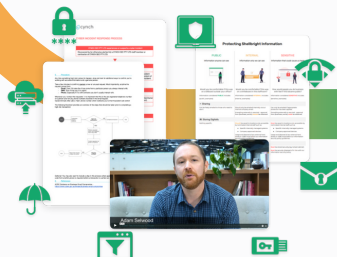

6 week program for just

$499^{+GST}

Group discounts available

Access policies, training and affordable technology solutions aligned to accreditation requirements

Share your progress with your team and prove your doing everything possible

...plus much more!

 cynch Cyber Fitness for Small Business

